10 things that require ZERO Talent

by
Mr. Pillsbury
#1. Being on Time

- Why would it be important to be on time?
- Is it rude to be late?
- Can you be fired for being late?
- What if you have a really good reason is it ok to be late?

His dad always said: Never be late, no profanity and don’t criticize”
John Wooden
#2. Work Ethic

- What is work ethic?
- Where does it come from?
- Why is it important?
- There is no substitute for hard work. If you're looking for the easy way, if you're looking for the trick, you might get by for a while, but you will not be developing the talents that lie within you. There is simply no substitute for work. "Vince Lombardi"
#3. Effort

- Why do you put forth your best effort?
- Why do we get lazy and not do our best?
- Why not try?
- Strength and growth come only through continuous effort and struggle. Napoleon Hill
#4. Body Language

• What is body language?

• Have you met someone with bad body language?

• What things are positive? What things are negative?

• Body language is a very powerful tool. We had body language before we had speech, and apparently, 80% of what you understand in a conversation is read through the body, not the words. Deborah Bull
#5. Energy

- Why do some people have great energy?
- What creates that?
- How does that influence opportunity?
- When you are enthusiastic about what you do, you feel this positive energy. It's very simple. Brian Tracy
#6. Attitude

- Why is having a good attitude important?
- Why do some people say attitude is everything?
- What brings us down and makes us have a bad attitude?
- For success, attitude is equally as important as ability. Walter Scott
Why is passion important?

What things are you passionate about?

How do you get passion?

The road to success is not easy to navigate, but with hard work, drive and passion, it's possible to achieve the American dream. Tommy Hilfiger
8. Being Coachable

• Why would being coachable important?

• Who is someone that you know that is coachable?

• What sorts of things can a coach teach you? Do they have to be tangible?

• “Coachable people seek out those who speak truth to them, even if it is a painful truth, because it protects them and it makes them a better person and leader.” Gary Rohrmayer
#9. Doing Extra

- What is doing extra? Is it with a project? Is it at dinner time?
- What is the response that people show once you have done something extra?
- Have you ever felt like doing extra?
- “Peace of mind attained only through self-satisfaction in knowing you made the effort to do the best of which you’re capable.” – John Wooden
#10. Being Prepared

- What does this look like?
- Have you ever been unprepared?
- Have you ever been 100% prepared?
- What does it say about you?
- “Failing to prepare is preparing to fail.” John Woodem
Summary

• Which one of these would be most important to you?

• GO ahead and rank them 1-10.

• Which one do you want to try and implement this year?

• What questions do you have know that you have heard the 10 things that require ZERO talent.